YAYASAN SABAH GROUP PLAY ACTIVE ROLE IN STATE'S DEVELOPMENT

Tawau (Sunday) – Chief Minister cum Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Yayasan Sabah, Tan Sri Datuk Seri Panglima Musa Haji Aman today officiated the Yayasan Sabah Bersama Rakyat (YSBR) Roadshow at Padang Perbandaran, Tawau.

The Roadshow themed Career, Entrepreneurship and Mobile Community Transformation Centre (Mobile CTC) Carnival (Karnival Kerjaya, Keusahawanan dan Mobile CTC) aimed at sharing information to local communities and the public on career opportunities that are available through Sabah International Convention Centre (SICC) besides bring government services to their doorsteps.

This Roadshow also encompassed the Mobile CTC programme that has brought many benefits to the people by providing opportunities for communities to get quick and easy access to a myriad of government services. There were 102 booths during the Roadshow expo from various agencies and entrepreneurs.

According to the Director of Yayasan Sabah, Datuk Sapawi Bin Haji Ahmad, “Yayasan Sabah Group continues to ensure that what we deliver is relevant, meaningful and empowering for the public. Yayasan Sabah Group, through synergism with other governments, departments and agencies worked together to bring development in the State. Yayasan Sabah Group believes, as we worked with other government agencies, we are able to pull our resources and expertise in order to supplement and complement the government’s role.”

Through its zone office in Tawau, programmes held by Yayasan Sabah Group in the East Coast South Zone from 2003 to 2017 have benefitted more than 154,000 people at a cost of RM6.8 million.

He also explained, “In the process of meeting various demands, the Sabah International Convention Centre (SICC) which will be completed by the end of 2018 will create opportunities for entrepreneurs as well as small and medium enterprises. SICC will also accelerate the involvement of entrepreneurs especially Bumiputera towards the end of the high-impact tourism chains.”

“Having said that, hospitality and training programmes will also be organised by Kolej Teknikal Yayasan Sabah (KTYS) and University College Sabah Foundation (UCSF) in partnership with Accor Hotels Group (the operator for SICC). Selected participants will be given the opportunity to learn and improve their skills after which, further screening through interview will also be carried out to the potential participants in order for them to be employed at SICC," said Datuk Sapawi too.

Yayasan Sabah Group also collaborated with Sabah Federal Treasury under the Ministry of Finance Malaysia, and once again provided the Mobile Community Transformation Centre (CTC), another highlight of today's Roadshow. Mobile CTC provided namely career talks, parking rebate for car parks, MyKad registration, replacement of MyKad, renewal of driving license, business registration, free tooth checks & treatments, registration of finance ministry's license, unclaimed money checks, adult helmet exchange for free (on first come first serve basis) at the Malaysian Road Transport Department's booth and statistics briefing.

In addition to that, there were 102 booths during the Roadshow which include agencies such as, Sabah Economic and Investment Authority (SEDIA), Amanah Ikhtiar Malaysia (AIM), Unit Peneraju Agenda Bumiputera, Labour Department Sabah (Jabatan Tenaga Kerja Sabah), MARA Sabah, Royal Malaysian Customs Department, Warisan Melayu, UMS Centre for External Education Tawau, Universiti Teknologi MARA Tawau, Open University Malaysia, Federal Agriculture Marketing Authority (FAMA), CIMB Bank, Ar Rahn, Telekom Malaysia, Discovery Tawau, Health Department Tawau (Jabatan Kesihatan Tawau), Prisons Department Tawau (Jabatan Penjara Tawau), Malaysian Road Transport Department (Jabatan Pengangkutan Jalan Malaysia), Polis Diraja Malaysia, KO-Nelayan and Rubber Industry Smallholders Development Authority (RISDA) and RTM.

There were also a demonstration of fruits carving, napkins folding, mocktail making presentation, cupcakes decorating, photo editing and photography presentation, students work in fine arts and visual arts and and many more by KTYS and UCSF students.

The public were also entertained with performances by artists, namely Ampal, Zero Maharaja Lawak Mega, YS Idol singing competition, career talks, parking rebate for car parks, MyKad registration, renewal of driving license, business registration and lucky draw with attractive prizes. Celebrity emcee, Ampal kept the atmosphere fun and exciting by interviewing visitors and getting them to participate in a series of quizzes and games.

The roadshow continued to attract strong interest from the local communities there.
