YAYASAN SABAH GROUP STEP UP WORKPLACE SAFETY & HEALTH

KOTA KINABALU (Friday): With the theme "Living With COVID-19 - A Step Forward", Yayasan Sabah Group is stepping up its Occupational Safety and Health through organising its Occupational Safety and Health Week 2022 programme on 28 July 2022.

According to the Director of Yayasan Sabah cum Executive Chairman of Innoprise Corporation Sdn. Bhd., Dato' Sri Gulamhaidar @ Yusof bin Khan Bahadar, the programme is primal of Yayasan Sabah Group's commitment to further increase awareness in cultivating safe work practices among its employees.

"The theme is appropriate, given that we are already in the endemic phase. In connection to this, I would like to remind all Yayasan Sabah Group staff that the spread of the COVID-19 virus is unlikely to ever end and, we must accept that we are living with the COVID-19 virus. The experience gained during these two years on ways in preventing COVID-19 virus infection must continue to be practiced and adhered to so that ourselves and families, especially those at high risk as well as others, are spared from this dangerous virus infection."

At the ceremony, a briefing entitled, "Living Together with COVID-19: A Step Forward," was delivered by the Senior Assistant Director from the Ministry of Health Malaysia Encik Ab. Razak bin Md. Noh, while the Assistant Director of Sabah Occupational Safety and Health Department, Puan Jinurah Sintian, delivered a briefing on "Employer and Employee Responsibilities." A sharing session on "Management/Handling of the Transmission of the COVID-19 Virus in Sabah Softwoods Berhad – Pandemic and Endemic Phases," was also shared by the Occupational Safety and Health Manager Sabah Softwoods Berhad, Encik Sabahuddin Yusuf.

A total of 200 Yayasan Sabah Group staff attended the programme.
