Keningau (Thursday)- Yayasan Sabah Group through Pusat Kraftangan Sabah (PKS) and Sabah Women's Advisory Council (MPWS) organised a Financial and Account Management Programme on 16 August 2017 at PKS, Keningau, Sabah.

It was attended by 60 participants comprising entrepreneurs under Yayasan Sabah Group, Yayasan Usaha Maju (YUM), Amanah Ikhtiar Malaysia (AIM) and Majlis Amanah Rakyat (MARA).

This programme provided participants with an insight into the proper and systematic management of financial and account management especially in business. The collaboration was one example of the National Blue Ocean Strategy (NBOS) initiative in developing the country and the rural community in order to get benefit from economic, social and educational opportunities.

The programme provides exposure to participants on the process of planning, distribution and utilization of manpower, capital (cash) of goods, and services to meet the goals of an organisation and business.

Encik Freddy Rantau, Managing Director, Yayasan Usaha Maju (YUM) and Chairman, Economic Committee, Sabah Women's Advisory Council (MPWS) officiated the closing ceremony of the programme.
